

Anna Lantz
Vice President Administration

Anna Lantz is the Vice President of Administration of ZeoGas LLC, a development-stage energy company building a portfolio of manufacturing plants converting natural gas into liquid fuels. Ms. Lantz joined the team in September of 2014 to manage the day-to-day office operations and administration of the growing ZeoGas organization which includes managing human resources, payroll, and accounts payable. She has responsibility for implementing and maintaining a document management system to include all corporate and Series A investment documents.

Ms. Lantz brings to the organization over 20 years of experience in the engineering, professional services and financial industries working for companies such as TRC Companies, Right Management Consultants and Texas Dow Employees Credit Union. Her significant experience includes P&L responsibilities for multiple offices, corporate policies and procedures development and regional logistics management. As part of her HR responsibilities, she established processes and policies for position descriptions, pay schedules, payroll and restructuring during a reduction in staff.

Over the years, Ms. Lantz built and led dynamic and cohesive administrative teams which were instrumental in creating solid foundations for office operations. By implementing programs for professional growth and development, those in her department were known to have high productivity, broadened capabilities and improved morale. Ms. Lantz's humor, wisdom and leadership impacts the entire culture of the organization in each company she served. Colleagues look to her as a role model for best practices and standards. She continues to serve as mentor for several previous employees.

Earlier in her career Ms. Lantz provided administrative support to several C-level executives and boards. As corporate secretary for a credit union-owned holdings company, Ms. Lantz managed all corporate and regulatory compliance for five limited liability companies representing various industries including Wealth Management, P&C Insurance, Real Estate, Title Insurance and Financial Services.

Ms. Lantz attended Sam Houston State University in Huntsville, Texas, and majored in Management. She is the mother of two teen age boys, an avid baseball mom and appreciates the opportunity to volunteer in her local community to serve the underprivileged.
